

Table Rock has one-third more population now than this time last year, and improvements have increased in a greater ratio. There are five public schools in operation in the precinct. There has been quite an awakening in religious matters. The Methodists are making ready to build a church in the spring.