

SHOW ENTERS SIXTH WEEK.

Kemp Sisters Exhibition Still Popular at Kennywood Park.

Kemp Sisters' Wild West began the sixth week of its engagement yesterday at Kennywood park. Several new acts were introduced and the numerous frontier scenes, riding exhibitions, and the train holdup were enthusiastically received.

The cowboy vaudeville show, which includes the Mysterious Edna, Jennie Cody, in fancy shooting; Morris the juggler; Rocky Mountain Hank, ventriloquist, and other features, was presented afternoon and evening. The Fourth of July will be celebrated with special performances, extra attractions and a fireworks display.
