

the rain. The fair association provided more attractions for the large crowd this year than at any previous fairs for many years. The Midway provided almost every attraction imaginable, from the cheap jewelry fakir to the mindreading and palmist artists. The biggest attraction on the inside of the race track was Kemp's Wild West Show, consisting of a reproduction of western scenes—cowboys and cowgirls riding the bucking broncos, strage holdups, lassoing, Indian massares, marksmanship, etc. The marksmanship of little Miss Jennie Cody, the handling of the lariat by "California Harry" and Colonel Cody were attractions that can not be seen every day. The Kemp's shows reached Tazewell on Monday from Hartford, Conn.

Under the grand stand, formerly used as a dining room, the great Agricultural and poutlry exhibits were displayed. The fine exhi-
