

In these days of the rodeo, wild west riding, bucking bronchos and aspiring daredevil performers it is interesting to note that the Robbins Bros. circus which is to show in Atchison Wednesday has issued a challenge accompanied with a $100 bill, that if anyone here has an outlaw horse which they think cannot be ridden to bring said horse to the circus lot and, if one of the cowboys of the show cannot successfully ride the animal and subdue him, the owner of the outlaw will be given the $100. The show carries with it 50 cowboys and 50 Indians. The cowboys are headed by the famous rodeo expert, Ponca Bill, with his Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders. Miss Lulu P. Parr, the world's greatest girl broncho buster, will give daily an exhibition of her ability. There must be some wild horses in this country that have not been subdued or ridden and here is a chance to pick up some easy money.
