

FORTY-YEAR-OLD CIRCUS ROMANCE UNITES COUPLE

PASADENA, Dec. 5.—Forty years ago a romance bloomed beneath the "big top" between two circus riders.

Almost half a century is a long time for a couple to wait to be married. But today, although the groom is 70 years of age, and the bride three years his senior, Victor F. Anderson and Elizabeth N. Pew were pronounced man and wife in the chambers of Superior Judge Archbald.

"Of course," explained Anderson,

"we didn't exactly wait as we both have been married two or three times, but I feel as though I'd waited a lot when I look at Betty again."

The newlyweds gave their address as 842 Figueroa street, Los Angeles. Mrs. Barbara Blazek of 212½ South Hill avenue, Los Angeles, served as official witness. Mr. Anderson is reported to have been married formerly to a French opera singer.

1934, article about Vic marrying Pew, says Vic "reported" married to a "French opera singer,"

Clipped By:
NebraskaKid
Apr 4, 2024