

DIES IN PENITENTIARY.

Gardy Anderson, 61, of Crab Orchard, died Tuesday afternoon in the penitentiary hospital where he had been confined to bed with anemia for some time. Officials said Anderson, who was serving a one year term from Pawnee county, had the disease when he entered the institution Oct. 23, 1935. He was a farmer near Crab Orchard and the body will be taken there for services and burial.

Gardy Anderson dies in prison,1936

Clipped By:
NebraskaKid
May 5, 2023